

Megan Livingston

Senior Director, Business Development

Jurata Thin Film

Ms. Livingston spent over 10 years in academic laboratories developing biomaterials, drug delivery systems, tissue engineering constructs, and stem cell therapies. She then transitioned to industry product development, where she helped cell and gene therapy developers scale up their GMP manufacturing and clinically translate their therapies. With Jurata, Ms. Livingston is responsible for client recruitment and development, investor recruitment, and corporate growth and regulatory strategies.