

Mr. Donald Johnson
Assistant Director – Support
Component Acquisition Executive
Defense Health Agency

Mr. Don Johnson serves as the Defense Health Agency (DHA) Assistant Director, Support/Component Acquisition Executive. Responsibility includes support to the Military Health System (MHS) in the areas of research and development, acquisition, medical logistics, and contracting.

Johnson entered the United States Air Force in 1985 after graduating from the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering. He also obtained a Master of Science Administration and Master of Business Administration from Georgia College. His acquisition, technology and logistics experience includes serving as a System Engineer, Warner Robins Air Logistics Agency; Chief Engineer, Air Force Space Command; Assistant Test Director, Air Force Operational Test and Evaluation Center; Program Manager, Hanscom Air Force Base; Program Director, Air Force Program Executive Officer; Acquisition Director, Office of the Secretary of Defense; Program Manager, Defense Health Agency; Acquisition Director, National Reconnaissance Office; and Program Manager, Office of the Director of National Intelligence.

Johnson is DAWIA Level 3 certified in Program Management and received Office of the Secretary of Defense Outstanding Program Management of the Year Award, Air Force Duckworth Award, Vice Presidential Hammer Award, Under Secretary of Defense Excellence Award, Deputy Secretary of Defense Excellence Award, National Reconnaissance Office Innovation Award, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence Exceptional Service Award. He lives in northern VA and is married to Michelle (former Harvard Medical School cancer researcher) and has 2 children (Adam and Nicole).